(2) the appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, require that from such date as may be specified in the notification, the employer in every establishment in private sector or every establishment pertaining to any class or category of establishments in private sector shall, before filling up any vacancy in any employment in that establishment, notify that vacancy to such employment exchanges as may be prescribed, and the employer shall thereupon comply with such requisition.

(3) The manner in which the vacancies referred to in subsection (1) or subsection (2) shall be notified to the employment exchanges and the particulars or employments in which such vacancies have occurred or about to occur shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) Nothing in subsection (1) and (2) shall be deemed to impose any obligation upon any employer to recruit any person through the employment exchange to fill any vacancy merely because that vacancy has been notified under any of those subsections.

(5) Employers to furnish information and returns in prescribed form- (1) After the commencement of this Act in any State or area thereof, the employer in every establishment in public sector in that State or area shall furnish such information or return, as may be prescribed in relation to vacancies that have occurred or are about to occur in that establishment, to such employment exchanges as may be prescribed.

(2) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, require that from such date as may be specified in the notification, the employer in every establishment in private sector or every establishment pertaining to any class or category of establishments in private sector shall furnish such information or return as may be prescribed in relation to vacancies that have occurred or are about to occur in that establishment to such employment exchanges as may be prescribed, and the employer shall thereupon comply with such requisition.

(3) The form in such, and the intervals of time at which, such information or return shall be furnished and the particulars which they shall contain shall be such as may be prescribed.

(6) Right of access to records of documents - Such officer of Government as may be prescribed in this behalf, or any person authorized by him in writing, shall have access to any relevant record or document in the possession of any employer required to furnish any information or returns under section 5 and may enter at any reasonable time any premises where he believes such record or document to be and inspect or take copies of relevant records or documents or ask any question necessary for obtaining any information required under that section.

(7) Penalties - (1) If any employer fails to notify to the employment exchanges prescribed for the purpose any vacancy in contravention of such-section (1) or such-section (2) of section 4, he shall be punishable for the first offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and for every subsequent offence with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

- (2) If any person -
 - (a) required to furnish any information or return -
 - (i) refuses or neglects to furnish such information or return; or
 - (ii) furnishes or causes to be furnished any information or return, which he knows to be false; or
 - (iii) refuses to answer, or gives a false answer to, any question necessary for obtaining any information required to be furnished under section 5 ; or
 - (b) impedes the right of access to relevant records or documents or the right of entry conferred by section 6, he shall be punishable for the first offence with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees and for every subsequent offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(8) Cognizance of offences - No prosecution for any offence under this Act shall be instituted except by or with the sanction of, such officer of Government as may be prescribed in this behalf or any person authorised by that officer in writing.

(9) Protection of action taken in good faith - No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

(10) Power to make rules - (1) The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :-

- (a) the employment exchange or exchanges to which, the form and manner in which, and the time within which, vacancies shall be notified, and the particulars of employments in which such vacancies have occurred or are about to occur ;

- (b) the form and manner in which, and the intervals at which, information and returns required under section 5 shall be furnished, and the particulars which they shall contain ;
 - (c) the officers by whom and the manner in which the right of access to documents and the right of entry conferred by section 6 may be exercised ;
 - (d) any other matter which is to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.
- (3) All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each. House of parliament as soon as may be after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.
